I DON'T WANT TO MISS A THING - kirill

Tablature for the song "I DON'T WANT TO MISS A THING" by kirill.

The notation includes fret numbers for each string, indicating the positions where the strings should be pressed to play the chords.

The notation is divided into sections, with each section representing a different part of the song. The numbers in the notation correspond to the frets on a guitar, with higher numbers indicating higher frets.

For example, a notation like "3 2 3 3 2 0" indicates that the first string should be played on the 3rd fret, the second string on the 2nd fret, and so on.

The notation also includes some slurs, indicating that the notes should be played smoothly without stopping.

The tablature is a visual representation of the song's chords and fingerings, allowing musicians to play the song accurately based on the notation provided.

The tablature is an essential tool for guitarists and other musicians, providing a clear and precise way to communicate the musical notes of a song.
